COMPANY HISTORY

MyDeejay.com was formed in 2003 with a bold vision: to perform exclusively for weddings, with artistry and refinement, and to offer the very best customer service found in this industry.

Headed by President Evan Reitmeyer, MyDeejay.com quickly developed a reputation among clients and wedding industry professionals for excellence and for delivering on its promises. The company also generated a soaring demand for sophisticated disc jockey entertainment within the Baltimore/Washington wedding market.

That demand prompted the expansion of MyDeejay.com into a multi-performer operation in 2005. The company currently features six disc jockeys, each carefully selected for his experience, creativity, and dedication, and available exclusively through MyDeejay.com.

In addition to its passion for providing outstanding service to its clients, MyDeejay.com is also passionate about protecting the environment. MyDeejay.com is committed to sustainable business practices and is the first, and currently the only, wedding entertainment company in the United States to be 100% carbon neutral.

MyDeejay.com has been recognized by Washingtonian as "Among the Area's Very Best Wedding DJs" since 2006 and was also included as a "Best of Weddings Pick" by The Knot as part of their Best of Weddings publication in 2007. The company's professional affiliations include the American Disc Jockey Association, the Baltimore Area Disc Jockey Association, and the Washington, DC Couture Wedding Consortium.
